Waronker Brothers' Cheap Cash Store, Lutesville, Mo.,

Next door to postoffice.

HON. JOSEPH W. FOLK, the next governor of Missouri will speak at Lutesville next Saturday afternoon come out everybody and hear him.

PARKER and Davis, with Joe Folk for governor, looks good to us.

Mr FOLK will speak at Lutesville next Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5.

SPEAKING of true democrats and many men commend us to W. J. Bryan.

This state—and this county, especially—don't want any negro equality.

PARKER, Folk and the balance of the ticket is about the best thing to do next Tuesday.

The democratic party is not in the running if the trusts are in a position to bid in the presidency.

Be sure you don't miss the opportunity to hear Mr. Folk at Lutesville Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5.

Young man, commence right. Go to the polls next Tuesday and vote a straight democratic ticket and in after life you will have no regrets.

SAV, bud, let's all turn out next Tuesday and elect Joe Folk by 100,000 majority. Then we'll give Missouri four years more of good democratic government.

Yes, the Philippine "civil" government is "sustaining" itself at a cost to Uncle Sam of $5,000,000 a year. Vote for Parker and Davis and cut that sort of "sustaining" out.

The republican brother who thinks and hopes that Bryan is dead should have been in Lutesville hall, the other day, when Governor Dockery mentioned the great Nebraska name.

It is rumored that Mr. Walbridge if elected, will give a good state appointment to Prof. J. Milton Turner, the negro orator, who has labored so hard on the stump for the Republican candidate.

Since 1900 the democratic state board of equalization has raised the assessment of railroad property in this county $83,965.30 or 40 per cent, while there has been no increase of valuation of farm lands.

We notice that in certain sections of the country they are forming "constitution clubs." What's the matter with Teddie Roosevelt joining something of that kind, even if it is in the shape of a night school?

THAT democratic mass meeting in St. Louis last Saturday night, knocked the last prop from under the Walbridge outfit. Just think of it 12,000 democrats in procession and an audience estimated at 25,000 to 35,000.

REMEMBER that when you vote for Tom Drum, next Tuesday, you are also voting for Missouri's Grand Old Man, Francis Marion Cockrell. Every Missourian who has any state pride should see that Senator Cockrell succeeds himself.

THIRTY years of democratic government and the most prosperous state in the federal union—lighter taxation, better school fund and happier people. That's the record of Grand Old Missouri. Who can gainsay it and tell the truth?

THE democrat who fails to get out to vote on election day may call himself a democrat, a loyal Missourian and other complimentary names, but in truth he will not be any of these. He will be a cipher in politics and a clan in citizenship.

THE Dingley act puts the tariff benefits exclusively in hands of the capitalist and provides no means for giving the wage worker his share. It is one of those sure-thing systems in which the workingmen, the farmers and the consuming public get it where they wear their collars.

WE fail to understand why President Francis of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition has neglected to corral "The Old Politician" of the Globe-Democrat and place him on exhibition on the Pike. As a first-class liar—without a peer, so to speak—"The Old Politician" would outdo Mulhannon so far that in no time he would be at prohibition odds in the pools. Really, the mouthings of that old state makes the Sunday Globe-Democrat one of the most profane and vulgar newspapers that goes into the mails.

AN audience that taxed the capacity of the hall met Governor Dockery at Lutesville on the 26th. In his speech the governor contrasted the thirty years of democratic rule to the six years of republican misrule. He clearly demonstrated the fact that Missouri has the lowest tax levy of any state in the union, and that no other state is as well governed. He eloquently and earnestly urged the election of every democrat on the state ticket and his encomiums upon Parker, Folk and Cockrell were wildly applauded.

RECOLLECT, democrats, that we have in Judge R. A. Anthony one of the best Circuit Judges in the state, and that is to the interest of every farmer and business man to reelect him.

THE Globe-Democrat, forgetting that Springfield is controlled by Republicans, had on October 18 an editorial utterance on the excessive local taxation there. The Springfield Republican of October 23 labors through several columns of type in an endeavor to square the matter, but the damage is done. The Globe-Democrat was trying to find a case of heavy taxation in Missouri, and, having found it, proceeded to lambast the Democrats for it, when, lo and behold! it is a piece of Republican work in its entirety.

Fact Rather Than Theory.

THE Globe-Democrat theorizes and calculates giving a multitude of figures to show that Missouri people pay high taxes. A citizen of Audrain county has come out in a statement which shows that the total for county, school and state purposes paid in that county on 160 acres of improved farm land is, on the average for the county, only $14.60. This is bringing the matter down to the only correct basis that of dollars and cents. The average is about the same all over Missouri as in Audrain. In Iowa and Illinois it ranges from forty to one hundred dollars on 160 acres.

Folk's Sincerity.

THE Republican machine attacks Mr. Folk's sincerity. If anyone doubts his sincerity in prosecuting the hoodlums, when he sees how all the hoodlums are fighting him as viciously as a man was ever fought, all doubts must disappear. If Mr. Folk had been insincere in his fight on hoodlums the hoodlums would be his friends instead of his enemies. The fact that the hoodlums are moving heaven and earth, and spending tens of thousands of dollars through the Republican machine in an effort to defeat Mr. Folk, is a tribute to his sincerity.

Mr. Folk has been engaged in a fierce encounter with the forces of corruption for three years. Threats of assassination have not deterred him from his duty. Traps have been laid for him without effect. He is fighting hoodlums to-day just as he did in the beginning. He has no favors to ask of them, and no quarter to give. His opponent, Mr. Walbridge is trying to get hoodlum votes and will get them. Mr. Folk does not want hoodlum votes and will not get them. He only wants honest votes. If the hoodlums can defeat Mr. Folk they know that no other prosecuting official will dare lay his hands on them hereafter. If Mr. Folk can be triumphantly elected in spite of the hoodlums every other prosecuting official will go after them. The hoodlums realize that this is the crisis and are fighting for their political lives. It is not possible for a man to be more sincere in the fight than Mr. Folk has been in the battle with bribery.

A Word With Democrats.

Every man is responsible for his influence, be it small or great. Every democrat who votes for Parker votes to defeat Roosevelt. Every democrat who does not vote for Parker contributes toward the election of Roosevelt. On every question upon which Judge Parker's position is open to criticism, President Roosevelt's position is worse; where they differ, as they do on many important questions, Parker is right and Roosevelt is wrong.

Roosevelt favors a high tariff; Parker favors tariff reform. Roosevelt favors a standing army of 60,000 at the minimum; Parker favors a reduction of the army.

Roosevelt has brought the race issue into national politics; Parker would remove the race issue from politics.

Roosevelt stands for a colonial policy; Parker favors independence for the Philippines and would make the promise now.

Roosevelt took into the white house a spirit of war; Judge Parker would substitute for it a spirit of peace.

Four years more of Roosevelt would make economic and industrial reform more difficult; Judge Parker's election would clear the way for economic issues. Let no democrat, by voting against Parker or by refusing to vote, take upon himself responsibility for four years more of Rooseveltism.—The Commonwealth.

Hadley Bears False Witness.

The Kansas City Star said on September 26: There was absolutely no basis of fact for the attack of Mr. Herbert S. Hadley on the Prosecutor of Hoodlums in his speech at Sedalia last Saturday night. Since Mr. Hadley is so anxious that he should be correctly quoted and that he should be absolved from the charge of unfairness, it is surprising, to say the least, that he should give to the newspapers a speech which was a clear misrepresentation of facts as they appear in the published records of the supreme court of Missouri.

The republican candidate for attorney-general said Saturday that after Folk was elected circuit attorney of St. Louis in 1900, and the election was contested Mr. Folk "rushed to the supreme court to secure a writ of prohibition, contending for the first time in the history of the state that in a contested election case the ballot boxes could not be opened and the ballots counted in comparison with the poll list."

Mr. Folk did no such thing, and the supreme court made no such order as Mr. Hadley said it did. The facts can be found in the reports of the supreme court, volume 164 page 23, and the name of the case is Funkhouser against Spencer.

Here are the facts: In 1900 the whole democratic city ticket in St. Louis was elected in protest against the corruption under the Walbridge and Ziegenheim administrations. The republican managers were furious against certain republicans and wanted to expose their votes. They appealed to the circuit court and obtained an order to open the ballot boxes and compare them with the list of voters and report to the court.

EVERY CASE WHICH THE CONSTITUTION WANTED TO KNOW. The politicians who brought the suit charged that every vote cast at that election was fraudulent, including their own.

Mr. Folk did not go near the supreme court or any other court. He joined with the elected circuit judges and others to employ an attorney to defend the charges of fraud. In the case of the elected corner, Funkhouser, this attorney went to the supreme court and obtained an order which forbade the report to the court of how every man voted, which would have destroyed the secrecy of the ballot. The order was thoroughly proper and constitutional. On the other hand, THE COURT EXPRESSLY RULED THAT THE BALLOT BOXES COULD BE OPENED AND THE BALLOTS COMPARED WITH THE LIST OF VOTERS, and the result reported to the court to determine whether fraud had been committed or not—but not the details as to how each individual citizen voted.

If Mr. Hadley did not know the facts of that case he should have read the record before making a deliberate attack upon Mr. Folk. The mass of the people do not read the supreme court reports, but Mr. Hadley should know that some persons do, and that a plain misrepresentation of the facts, whether thru willingness or ignorance can not go uncorrected.

Mr. Hadley is fairly cornered. He must admit that he is slandering Mr. Folk for partisan purposes, or that he (Hadley) is such a poor lawyer that he didn't know the facts in this important case. Either way it turns out, Hadley is not qualified for attorney-general.
